

MICHELLE CHRISMAN

Palette Knife Painting Still Life - OIL CLASS

Friday, May 18, 2018 | From 10A - 5P |

$125 BYOM / $140 Materials Included + Tax

Learn how to be bold in your still-life painting and let your own voice sing! Michelle Chrisman will teach you how to make bold, decisive, strokes in thick, luscious oil paints using a palette knife. You will learn how to move color and to create value and form. Students will learn about principles of expressionism, including working to create mood and ideas . This workshop is open to all levels of painters - beginning to advanced. Participants should be prepared to transport a wet oil painting home by bringing their own box or wet panel carrier if they have one.

No Refunds after May 14th | Students receive 10% off Art Supplies after registration
